

Slee Off Road Freight Shipping Disclaimer

A signature is required for all deliveries during regular business hours (Monday-Friday 8:00AM to 4:00PM). Prior to signing and accepting any freight, please insure it has been carefully inspected for any damage.

It is the responsibility of the consignee(s) to receive all item(s). The consignee must be present to receive any item(s) at the time of delivery.

The Consignee Responsibilities(s)

Failure for a consignee(s) to be present to accept a delivery may result in a delayed delivery and possible holding of the item(s) as well as additional charges by the freight company. If the freight company is unable to make delivery, storage charges for each day held will accrue. If held, these charges are the responsibility of the client who placed the order. In the event that neither the freight company nor Slee Off-Road are able to contact the client who placed the order, the item(s) will be returned to Slee Off-Road. In this event, the client who placed the order will be held responsible for any and all costs (including, but not limited to; storage and any additional delivery attempts). Also, at discretion Slee Off Road may access a restocking fee.

Receiving Delivered Item(s)

The consignee is responsible for the removal of all item(s) from the truck. The truck driver(s) will position the item(s) in the back of the truck. Driver(s) are not allowed or responsible for removing delivered item(s). Unless a lift gate service is requested at the time of the order, the consignee is responsible for handling the item(s) which may require a fork-lift. If the shipment can't be unloaded, and the freight company is requested to return with a lift-gate equipped truck, the consignee will be responsible for the cost.

Inspecting Your Shipment

Prior to signing and accepting any freight, please insure it has been carefully inspected for any damage. It is the consignee's responsibility to inspect their shipment for any and all damages. If the packaging shows any indication of damage or mistreatment, please open it immediately and carefully review its contents. The consignee may ask the driver to aid in the inspection of the item(s). If the item(s) have been damaged, the consignee (or the driver) must write a precise description of the damage on both the consignees copy and the freight company's copy of the delivery waybill. In the event damaged item(s) are discovered, please call Slee Off Road (888 494-7533) immediately so that we may initiate a damage claim with the freight company. Please note; Slee Off Road is exempt from any and all damages to any item(s) unless noted on the shipping waybill by the receiving consignee.
